Our ASM provides a unique opportunity to bring together the multidisciplinary health professionals involved in researching and treating cancers of the genitourinary system.

ANZUP’s 2013 ASM program highlights will include:

• State of the art presentations from leading international and Australian experts;
• Up-to-date management and research for prostate and other genitourinary cancers;
• Opportunities for researchers to present their research;
• Clinical trial concept development workshop;
• Overviews of current and planned ANZUP trials;
• ANZUP Trainee Day;
• Community Engagement Forum: “A little below the belt”.

There will be travel grants available to support member’s attendance to the ASM and Trainee Day.

INTERNATIONAL FACULTY CONFIRMED TO DATE INCLUDE:

Jason Efstathiou - Assistant Professor of Radiation Oncology, MGH Harvard Medical School and RTOG Chair of the Comparative Effectiveness Subcommittee. Sponsored by ANZUP.
